

Turning great minds into great teachers

Helping Fairmount and Steenberg Matrics with Mathematics ahead of Mocks

Our future teachers welcomed learners for a day of Mathematics - unlocking the mysteries of maths while practising their teaching skills, by working through Mock maths examination papers.

"The teachers were helpful and patient in assisting us in understanding the work."
STEENBERG HIGH STUDENT

"The explanations were easy to understand. I managed to do things that I previously had found difficult. It was an awesome day."
FAIRMOUNT SECONDARY STUDENT

FUTURE TEACHERS Bonke Masizana (4th year), Nur-Jehaan Abrahams (1st year), Griffenn Gertse (1st year), Jaycee-Lee Maybe (3rd Year) and Michael Van Schalkwyk (1st year).

TEACHERS PLUS CLEAN-UP CREW

Our maths whizzes threw themselves into the Clean-Up Day, gaining insight into reducing, reusing and recycling to pass on to future learners.

"It was fun, leaving me with a sense of environmental accomplishment. Polyoak's commitment to the planet was eye-opening."
SHANIQUE NOVEMBER, 1ST YEAR

Teachers Plus alumna brings Grade 11 learners to Polyoak

Nafeesah Brenner brought her Springfield Convent learners for a special, accounting-focused day at Polyoak, during which learners also met our HR and Accounting teams for inspiration.

#PROUD
"We were thrilled to host her class," says Brenda Elshove, with Nafeesah.

MEET OUR TEACHERS PLUS FIVE-YEAR LSA RECIPIENTS

Thank you Teachers Plus, you...

 ACCOUNTING, RUSTENBURG GIRLS' HIGH

"... shaped me into the teacher I am."
KARYN GIDEON
 ACCOUNTING, RUSTENBURG GIRLS' HIGH

"I enjoyed seeing how products are made and how much effort goes into the business. I saw multiple women at work, which was an inspiration, as was talking to financial managers about their journey to where they are today - and how I could get there. "Polyoak invests in education, and education is essential to succeeding."
